Toshio Hosokawa

Toshio Hosokawa was born on 23 October, 1955 in Hiroshima. He has been to Germany to study composition for ten years since 1976, with Isang Yun at the Hochschule der Künste in Berlin and with Klaus Huber at the Staatliche Hochschule für Musik in Freiburg.

In 1980, Hosokawa participated for the first time in the Internationale Ferienkurse für Neue Musik in Darmstadt. Since then, he has been working on composition mainly in Europe and Japan, gaining a good reputation worldwide as one of the leading Japanese composers and being commissioned by the primary orchestras, the major music festivals and the significant opera theatres in Europe and America one after another.

His second opera HANJO commissioned by the Festival d'Aix-en-Provence in 2004 (Anne Teresa de Keersmaeker, staging), his orchestral work Circulating Ocean, commissioned by the Salzburg Festival in 2005 (premiered by the Wiener Philharmoniker), Woven Dreams, an award-winning work of the 5th Roche commissions in 2008 (for the Lucerne Festival and the Carnegie Hall, premiered by Cleveland Orchestra at the Lucerne Festival in 2010, won the British Composer Awards 2013), his third opera Matsukaze commissioned by La Monnaie in 2011 (Sasha Waltz, staging), The Raven commissioned by United Instruments of Lucilin, Horn Concerto —Moment of Blossoming—, co-commissioned by Berliner Philharmoniker, the Barbican Centre London and Concertgebouw Amsterdam (premiered by the Berliner Philharmoniker in 2011) and many others were premiered under the baton of the world's leading conductor, for example, Kazushi Ono, Valery Gergiev, Franz Welser-Möst, Sir Simon Rattle and so on. Many of these mentioned works have been performed as an important repertoire in each genre.

At the Salzburg Festival 2013, many works by Hosokawa were performed, including two premieres: Klage for soprano and orchestra (his second commissioned work by the festival), and Ancient Voices –In memory of Wolfgang Schulz– for wind quintet (commissioned by Ensemble Wien-Berlin). Concerto for trumpet and orchestra "Im Nebel" (premiered in The Suntory Foundation for Arts Summer Festival 2013) won the Otaka Prize for the third time in 2014. In his recent works, Hosokawa is especially engaged in depicting the relationships between nature and human being, composing works that are meant to be a prayer and a requiem; in 2014, his concertos Aeolus and Fluss, vocal work Drei Angel-lieder, and etc. were premiered in Europe one after another, in 2015, Nach dem Sturm for two sopranos and orchestra (commissioned for Tokyo Metropolitan Symphony Orchestra's 50th anniversary by itself) was premiered by Kazushi Ono and the orchestra in November in Tokyo and received the national premieres at its concert tour around Europe. In January 2016, his latest opera Stilles Meer (Oriza Hirata, the original text and staging) that describes Fukushima several years after The Great East Japan Earthquake was premiered in Hamburg. It greatly attracted attention of many people, and was highly praised by the audience.

In 2001, Hosokawa became a member of Akademie der Künste, Berlin. He was Composer-in-Residence with Tokyo Symphony Orchestra in the 1998-2007 season, with Deutsches Symphonie Orchester Berlin in the 2006/2007 season, with WDR Rundfunkchor Köln in the seasons 2006-2008, and with Nederlands Philharmonisch Orkest in the 2013/2014 season. In 2006/2007 and again in 2008/2009 he was invited as one of the Fellows by Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin. In 2012, he was elected to a member of Bayerische Akademie der Schönen Künste, München, and received the Medal of Honour with Purple Ribbon from the Government of Japan in Autumn.

Currently, he serves as Music Director for the Takefu International Music Festival, a guest professor at Tokyo College of Music and at Elisabeth University of Music.
